

Virtual CIO

Every business deserves the same access to an efficient technology strategy

SevenC Computing's knowledge of technology trends will enable your IT systems to perform in line with the businesses objectives.

vCIO overview

The vCIO services from SevenC includes the formulation of strategic IT goals, planning IT budgets, and analyzing and reworking business processes and facilitating technology changes.

The vCIO service is forward looking, in that we work with clients to plan technology roadmaps and identify opportunities to use new technology and tools, ensuring that business and IT are aligned. Streamlining business technology and processes, the vCIO will also oversee operations infrastructure and manage risk.

SevenC Computing vCIO brings a unique set of skills and collective knowledge to the table.

Core functions of the vCIO

- Evaluate your current IT investment and assist to make sound business decisions
- Educate and assist senior management with the drafting of business cases
- Translate long term business strategy into actionable plans for IT to implement
- Analyse departmental costs , assessments and assist in IT budgeting to determine where spend can be redirected
- Keep IT infrastructure current and relevant
- Proactively find innovative ways to use technology to solve business challenges

A vCIO bridges the gap between business and IT

Advantages of a vCIO from SevenC

- Improved governance of Enterprise IT and strategic technology
- Alignment of technology and IT perspectives
- Reduced risk profile through the set-up of risk management processes and management technologies
- Over 21 years of experience operating in diverse IT environments

Services

Summary of vCIO strategic IT service portfolio offering.

Enterprise Architecture and planning

- IT and cyber security
- Disaster recover planning and design
- Cloud infrastructure design and planning
- Incident response planning

Special interests

- Line of business application planning

IT governance

IT risk management

IT project management

Outsourced IT support

IT procurement

- Structured cabling
- Networking
- Wireless networking
- Software sales and support
- Hardware sales and support

What is your IT maturity?

A company's IT maturity model depicts their ability to gain control and improve its IT related processes, which have a direct impact on overall business performance.

SevenC vCIO have experience in identifying problems and solutions to move your IT environment to the next level.

A SevenC vCIO goes beyond managing networks and infrastructure.

SevenC vCIO will:

- Ask business questions to help formulate IT recommendations
- Determine your IT "state of maturity" and align business objectives with the environment
- Assist with client servicing, increase sales revenue and organise the company's structures and processes
- Ask thought provoking questions to discover unseen opportunities and increase improvement

Characteristics of a vCIO

Agility

Move fast when needed, enforce directional changes when needed.

Customisation

SevenC vCIO understands different technology approaches needed to meet specific business requirement.

IT skills

SevenC vCIO brings a wealth of trained executives familiar with running a business and achieving results.

Leadership

SevenC vCIO can participate at board level meetings to correlate business goals and objectives, with IT strategy and tactics.

Experience

SevenC Computing has a track record of past performances, competency, and satisfied clients.

Customer Service

A principal component of our business model.